

G. A. R. VETERANS TAKE POSSESSION OF CHICAGO

HONOR OF OLD GLORY

National Encampment Opens With Over 300,000 Visitors Present.

NAVAL PARADE TODAY

Iron Brigade Reunion a Notable Feature This Afternoon and Evening.

WILD CHEERS WON BY SICKLES

Chicago, Aug. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—With the firing of the salute of thirteen guns on the lake front this morning the thirty-fourth annual encampment of the Grand Army was formally opened.

Today was devoted to the naval veterans and former prisoners of war.

Preceding the parade and dedicatory ceremonies the naval arch attracted thousands.

This afternoon the naval display off the lake front takes place. This evening reunions and "dogwatches" will be held.

One hundred thousand strangers reached Chicago yesterday, and today's arrivals duplicated those figures. The weather is fine and the temperature cool today.

Tomorrow will be a gala day when the parade of the veterans is expected to eclipse all previous occasions.

First Business Done Today.

The first business of the encampment was transacted today. The national headquarters were opened in the Palmer house.

EVENTS TODAY SMACKED OF THE SEA.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—All today's G. A. R. encampment events smacked of the sea.

The naval arch at the southern entrance of the court of honor was dedicated at two bells—9 a. m.

The land parade of old man-of-war's men, naval militia, union ex-prisoners of war and the boys' brigade got under way at Randolph street and Michigan avenue at six bells of the same watch, 11 a. m.

The water parade of steam and sailing yachts, headed by the revenue cutter Morrill and Fessenden, slipped anchor at six bells of the afternoon watch, 3 p. m., and trailed up the north shore to Lincoln park, where the cutters will cast off their tows at 5 p. m. and show landlubbers what a closely ranged fight between gunboats is like.

The naval veterans will top off the day with a "dog-watch" celebration in Assembly hall, 155 LaSalle street, at 8 p. m.

Commodore Seavey Presided.

Commodore George L. Seavey, national commander of the tars who followed Farragut and Porter, presided at the dedication of the naval arch, his escort being 100 naval reserves and as many

FLAG MUST NEVER COME DOWN.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—"Who is the man who would say, 'Thus far shall you go, and no further?'" cried General Daniel E. Sickles to 8,000 people in the Coliseum Saturday night. Who is he and what is his name?"

"Bryan, Bryan," was the answer, and the audience at the opening exercises of the Grand Army of the Republic encampment burst into a great laugh of derision at the man who would stay the progress of the stars and stripes.

"The flag," continued General Sickles, "will never cease to float over Cuba, Porto Rico, and the Philippines. No human being now living will ever see that starry banner come down."

Then the great crowd burst into a tempest of applause and cheered again.

RASSIEUR FOR GRAND COMMANDER.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—Gen. John C. Black has formally notified Joel M. Longenecker, Illinois department commander, that he will under no circumstances be a candidate and that he does not wish his name to come before the encampment. The reason assigned is that it is an unwritten law in the Grand Army that the commander in chief shall

GEN. E. S. BRAGG OUT FOR M'KINLEY

SOLELY IN CONSEQUENCE OF THE SOUND MONEY ISSUE.

He Says, However, That He Does Not Agree With the President and Republican Party in Their Imperialistic Tendencies—Trusts are Really No Issue at All.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—General Edward S. Bragg, the famous leader of the Iron Brigade, who is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McConnell, No. 4417 Ellis avenue, is one of the democratic wheel horses of the northwest who are now solid supporters of McKinley and Roosevelt.

"I am with McKinley," he said, "solely in consequence of the sound-money issue. That of itself is enough to gain him the support of every honest man in the country. The democratic party is in a state of decomposition, but I have seen very pretty poisons grow out of repulsive fertilizers. For the present campaign, however, I am with McKinley."

"I do not agree with the republican party at all in its imperialistic tendencies. I do not think it becoming in a republic to talk of its 'possessions,' nor to annex any country that cannot participate in our constitution. I do not think the Philippines will ever be pacified, and it will require 150,000 troops to hold them. I approve of the policy of our government in regard to China. We should never be a party to any piracy of Chinese territory, but I do not feel so sure that we will not ultimately come to it."

"The other issue in the campaign is trusts, and I do not know that it is really an issue at all, for we are agreed about them. I do not think, however, that this country is in any danger from trusts. If the demagogues would let us alone the trust problem would work out its own solution."

Gen. Bragg is in the 70's and is blind in one eye, but his martial spirit is higher than ever. He could not deny that anything on earth would give him such supreme delight as to lead his brigade in one more fight. "Turn it and twist it as you will," said he, "the field of battle remains the field of glory."

CHAMPION SHOT OF BADGER STATE

J. M. Hughes of Palmyra Won the Title at Milwaukee State League of Gun Clubs.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 27.—J. M. Hughes of Palmyra is the championship trapshot of the state, as yesterday he won the title and accompanying trophy and money at the tournament of the Wisconsin League of Gun clubs on the grounds of the South Side Gun club, in Milwaukee.

He made a perfect score and nothing short of that would have won him the title as six of his competitors chased him so closely that they missed but one target each out of the twenty-five which made the championship race. Hughes is a small man but a giant when it comes to handling a gun at the traps.

In the general work of the Bersheid, Campbell, Roach, Marsh, Lee, Damon, Thomas and others did well and the shooting throughout was of a high average. The tournament, taking both days into consideration, was a great success, especially in the character of the work at the traps.

The success of the Wisconsin League of Gun clubs is now assured. It has secured for its membership the leading clubs of the state, or many of them, and the remainder are rapidly coming in. There are fifty gun clubs in the state and upwards of 1,800 trapshooters organized, of whom some are the equal of the best in the country.

BOERS PUT UP A DESPERATE FIGHT

Held Roberts in Check All Day Sunday—Was a Bloody Skirmish With Many Casualties.

London, Aug. 26.—[Special Cablegram.]—Gen. Roberts reports from Belfast under Sunday's date that he engaged the Boers a greater part of that day over an area of thirty miles and was stubbornly opposed. The Boers brought long tons and pomps into action and the firing was hot and persistent until dark.

Buller's casualties were forty. Col. Ridley with two hundred and fifty of the Imperial yeomanry was attacked by a thousand Boers and two guns. Ridley was entrenched and fought until relieved by Hunter. Casualties thirty.

Rundle received the surrender of one hundred and sixty Boers at Harrismith. The fighting was near Machadodorp, 100 miles east of Pretoria.

London, Aug. 27.—[Special Cablegram.]—The Boer general Oliver was captured at Winburg where Bruce Hamilton defeated the enemy. Three of Oliver's sons were also taken. The Boers attacked the British at Winburg, on three sides, but were beaten back with considerable loss.

DEFENDS HER HOME AGAINST A MOB

Mrs. Wright, of Gilman, Ill., Kills Two and Wounds Three.

AN ALL NIGHT BATTLE

She Was Finally Shot Through the Shoulder and Her Home Burned Down.

REFUSED TO BE ARRESTED

Gilman, Ill., Aug. 27.—[Special Telegram.]—John Myers and Michael Ryan are dead; and Lawrence Ryan, George Willoughby and Mrs. C. W. Wright fatally wounded; and H. Peter Lauer, seriously as a result of an all night battle between a mob and Mrs. Wright who was accused of the murder of Bessie Salter, sixteen years old.

Constable Milstead early last evening went to Mrs. Wright's house at the outskirts of the town, to serve a warrant upon the women sworn out after a coroner's verdict. A number of deputies accompanied the constable.

He found the door of the house barricaded but broke it down and as he entered the darkened rooms a shot was fired and Michael Ryan a deputy fell dead.

The constable hurriedly left and formed a picket line about the house, firing into the building at intervals.

Finally they determined to set fire to the house but the rains had soaked it so it could not catch.

After burning the outbuildings the line was reformed and at three o'clock this morning a mob of two hundred and fifty gathered all well armed.

Ryan's body lay on the grass and the grief of his family, who came to the scene drove the crowd to a frenzy. They seized straw saturated with petroleum and piled it against the so called hospital and applied the torch.

The building was soon in flames and shots came from the upper windows all the time.

Willoughby was the next to fall. Peter Lauer then went down. Suddenly in the rear several shots came followed by a fusillade from the mob, who rushing forward found John Myers a blacksmith, employed by the woman shot to pieces and Mrs. Wright with a ragged hole in her shoulder.

She was carried to the council chamber but will die. The house was completely destroyed.

The woman, Mrs. Wright, is fifty years old. She was formerly an actress and conducted a lying in hospital on the outskirts of the city.

MEET TO DISCUSS MUNICIPAL WORK

Convention of the American Society at Milwaukee This Week—Will Open on Wednesday.

Milwaukee, Aug. 27.—The American Society of Municipal Improvements will begin a three days' convention here on Wednesday. It will bring together men from all over the country who are interested in the subject of bettering the municipalities of the land. The attendance will include officials from many of the large cities of the country, and in some instances there will be quite large delegations.

While the business sessions will not open until Wednesday morning, a preliminary session will be held Tuesday afternoon in the arcade of the Plankinton House, which will be headquarters. At that time Mayor Rose will formally welcome the members to the city. A. D. Thompson of Peoria, Ill., president of the society, will respond for the society.

This will be followed by the address of the president and some reports of special committees may be heard. Among these will be one on "Municipal Data," by C. C. Brown, consulting engineer of Bloomington, Ill., and one on "Municipal Statistics," by August Hermann of Cincinnati.

Denver Has 133,859 Population

Washington, Aug. 27.—[Special Telegram.]—The census gives Denver one hundred and thirty-three thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine (133,859) an increase of twenty-five and forty-four (25.44) per cent.

Children Aboard Liners.

First among trans-Atlantic liners to look out for the amusement of children passengers is the new racer Deutschland, which has on the upper deck a big room set apart as a playroom. Here the youngsters may romp, play and make all sorts of noise without disturbing other passengers. Toys of many kinds are also provided.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS ARE ON THEIR WAY

THE CREAM CITY WAS THE MEETING PLACE.

Members From All Over Wisconsin Congregated at Milwaukee, Leaving by Steamer and Rail—Frank Barry Scores the Anti-Fethers Men in Severe Language.

Milwaukee was the rendezvous for hundreds of Wisconsin Knights of Pythias yesterday en route from St. Paul, Minneapolis, Eau Claire and other points in the west and the northwest and from Janesville, Monroe, Kenosha, Racine and Berlin to the annual convention of the order at Detroit next week. It was planned to have the crack Eau Claire company give an exhibition drill in Milwaukee, but the time was so short that it was not possible. They came in over the Wisconsin Central tracks and made connections with the morning Pere Marquette boat to Ottawa Beach. Many other knights left on the evening boat at 9:30 o'clock.

Trip From Twin Cities

One hundred members of the order from Minneapolis and St. Paul left the Twin cities last night by special train on the Wisconsin Central. They were joined at Eau Claire by the famous John Barr Glenn company and a full military band. The special train arrived at Milwaukee and the party was transferred to the Pere Marquette dock, where the F. & P. M. No. 4 was waiting and our Wisconsin and Minnesota fraters enjoyed a daylight ride to Ottawa Beach. A special train left Ottawa Beach upon the arrival of the No. 4 and made the run to Detroit, arriving there at 8:30 p. m. Delegations from Bessemer, Ashland, Oshkosh, Kenosha, Racine, Delavan, Monroes, Janesville, Berlin and Evansville, were distributed on the company's regular steamers leaving here Saturday and Sunday evenings at 9:30.

J. M. Cleaveland, the city passenger agent, took charge of the party on Saturday's boat; H. F. Moeller, general passenger agent, the Sunday morning steamer, and H. W. Jameson, traveling passenger agent of the Sunday evening boat.

Mr. Barry's Sharp Pen

The current issue of the Pythian age, of which Frank Barry is the publisher, has some rather startling editorial in regard to the attempt of a certain element among the knights who oppose the elevation of Ogden H. Fethers of Janesville, to supreme chancellor of the order. He calls the element who will oppose Fethers the parasites and scores them vehemently, as follows: "Certain men lacking in principle and Pythian honor, have fastened themselves to the order's throat and have for a time been sucking its life blood. Exceeding peace has made them bold, and they are attempting to strengthen their hold by influencing the election of those to official positions whom they know they can control or hoodwink."

The Milwaukee delegation joined the Eau Claire company, leaving Milwaukee at 9:30 o'clock Sunday night. The Rathbone sisters have a meeting in Detroit next week at the same time as the Knights of Pythias. The Wisconsin members of this order left Milwaukee at 8 o'clock Sunday morning on the F. & P. M. No. 4.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY AT HOTEL VENDOME

Boston Man Kills a Chicago Friend in Baltimore and then Shoots Himself.

New York, Aug. 29.—[Special Telegram.]—P. H. Stridiron said to be a Chicago lumber merchant, who registered at the hotel Vendome as from Baltimore, was shot twice in the head this morning by H. J. Ford, of Boston, his friend, who turned the revolver to his own head and fired, dying instantly. The tragedy occurred in Stridiron's room. The men, apparently friends, spent the time in drinking together. A note found in Ford's pocket showed premeditation. It said "I hope my friend will forgive me this act."

CAMPAIGN TO OPEN EARLY NEXT MONTH

La Follette Will Make His First Speech in Milwaukee—State Issue Will be Chief Topic.

Madison, Aug. 27.—Robert M. La Follette will open the campaign, it is said, in Milwaukee, early in September. Mr. La Follette will make no formal speech before that, if he makes any at all. Both in that opening speech and in others during the campaign, Mr. La Follette will devote a portion of his time to national issues, discussing both the money question and expansion. Of course the state issues will be the chief topic of his speeches, but his interest in the national questions and the republican party, not to speak of his close personal friendship and cordial support of President McKinley, will cause some portion of several speeches delivered at various parts of the state to be devoted to national politics.

Mr. La Follette is expected to return from the north early in September.

CELESTIAL ARMY TO ATTACK PEKIN

Allied Forces in the Imperial Capital May be Besieged.

CLOSE IN ON ALL SIDES

Chinese are Massing a Large Force and Bringing Up Their Big Guns.

POWERS FIXING THE TERMS

Washington, Aug. 27.—[Special Telegram.]—A message from Conger has been received. Owing to difficulty in deciphering the text will not be given out until late. It is said there is nothing important in it from a diplomatic point of view, one statement saying that there is no change in the diplomatic situation since his last message.

ALLIES AT PEKIN EXPECT ATTACK

Large Force of Chinese Said to Be Gathering About the City.

London, Aug. 27.—The allied troops in Pekin were a week ago Sunday, the date of the latest advices, expecting a severe attack from a large body of Boxers, supposed to be approaching the capital from the south.

An official dispatch from Taku, under date of August 23, to the Japanese government, states that Chinese infantry, some 9,000 strong, with fifteen guns, are advancing forward from Shantung to make a rear attack on the allies.

The advices to the Japanese government also state that as the Chinese troops and Boxers, who had gathered at Nan Yuen, were about to attack the foreign forces at Pekin, Japanese and Russian cavalry were expected to encounter them on the 20th.

Two Powers Announce Terms

Russia and Japan both have made known their terms for peace. The former demands the restoration of the status quo and a money indemnity, while the latter insists upon the appointment of commissioners acceptable to the powers, an expression of regret, and full indemnity.

Signal Vengeance Necessary

The Times, in an editorial leader, says: "It certainly will be necessary to leave in Pekin some signal and, so far as possible, some quite unmistakable sign of the vengeance of the powers and of the defeat and humiliation of the Chinese government, and this sign must be of a permanent kind."

"Unless this precaution is taken the ingenuity of the rulers of that empire and the credulity of the ruled will speedily distort the capture of Pekin and the flight of the emperor and empress into an episode glorious to the occupant of the dragon throne and his subjects and disgraceful to the foreign devils."

DENBY UPHOLDS THE PRESIDENT

Noted Indiana Diplomat and Democrat Denounces Wm. J. Bryan's Anti-Imperialism Crusade.

Chicago, Ill., August, 27th, 1900.—Charles Denby of Indiana, a lifelong democrat and ex-minister to China, has written a letter regarding the Philippine question in which he takes strong ground in favor of the position of President McKinley, and condemns the course advocated by Mr. Bryan as not only unpatriotic in policy but bad in morals. Mr. Denby writes with full knowledge on his subject, having been a member of the first commission to the Philippines, and having made a thorough study of the situation there, a study which was the more intelligently directed as his former residence in China had given him a knowledge of Eastern affairs and manners.

STATE GUARD IS HIGHLY PRAISEDGEN. BOARDMAN IS PLEASED
WITH WORK OF THE YEAR.Gain in Attendance and Physical Fitness

C. R. Boardman is home after three busy weeks at Camp Douglas range, where he was with the First, Second and Third regiments of the Wisconsin National guard.The regiments were given hard and systematic drilling this year and the adjutant general is much pleased with the work of the officers and men. Gen.
Boardman has been untiring in his efforts to bring the guard of Wisconsin up to the highest standard attained by any state and his efforts have been successful. He reviews the three weeks as follows:"The work of the Wisconsin National guard while in camp this year has been on the whole progressive and satisfactory. In point of attendance there has been a gain, nearly 95 per cent. of the full strength being present. This is the best showing in attendance since the guard was first organized."In physical fitness there has also been a gain even over last year. This is due to the fact that every man must now undergo a physical examination before enlistment. Had the regiments while in camp been asked to enter the volunteer service it is doubtful if there would have been a loss of 3 per cent. on account of physical disability."There has also been a gain in the matter of rifle practice."To sum up the Guard as a whole,

with the exceptions of four or five companies, is in as good condition as it was before the war with Spain. It is now in a period of transition for old officers and men will continue to drop out quite fast for the next year or two. It is somewhat of a critical period for with a heavy influx of new members it will be much easier for the organization to slip back little by little than to gain."Manuscripts of Thiers.

The Lackawanna Railroad is the cleanest railroad in America. Even though it carries little for the comfort of its passengers, which it does, it probably would burn hard coal, for the reason that it owns the most extensive anthracite coal mines in Pennsylvania, and it is cheaper for it to burn hard coal, which makes no smoke, than soft. At any rate, there is no smoke from its locomotives. It is built for the most part through the mountains where rock is the material easiest of access, and its road bed for that reason is rock ballasted. There isBAD BLOOD, BAD COMPLEXION.The skin is the seat of an almost endless variety of diseases. They are known by various names, but are all due to the same cause, acid and other poisons in the blood that irritate and interfere with the proper action of the skin.To have a smooth, soft skin, free from all eruptions, the blood must be kept pure and healthy. The many preparations of arsenic and potash and the large number of face powders and lotions generally used in this class of diseases cover up for a short time, but cannot remove permanently the ugly blotches and the red, disfiguring pimples.Eternal vigilance is the price of a beautiful complexionwhen such remedies are relied on.
Mr. H. T. Shobe, 204 Lucas Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., says: "My daughter was afflicted for years with a disfiguring eruption on her face, which resisted all treatment. She was taken to two celebrated health springs, but received no benefit. Many medicines were prescribed, but without result, until we decided to try S. S. S., and by the time the first bottle was finished the eruption began to disappear. A dozen bottles cured her completely and left her skin perfectly smooth.
She is now seventeen years old, and not a sign of the embarrassing disease has ever returned."S. S. S. is a positive, unfailing cure for the worst forms of skin troubles. It is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and the only one guaranteed purely vegetable.

MAHONEY MAKES A STATEMENTThe Milwaukee Journal publishes the following: J. L. Mahoney, whose alliterative utterance in the recent democratic state convention in Milwaukee is receiving so much attention at the hands of the republican press, is much amused
at their comments:"In the first place," said Mr. Mahoney today, "The republican papers have misquoted the expression. I said 'Blood', Bohrich and Blood, not 'or blood' as they have it. It was intended merely to express the idea that the democrats of the state of Wisconsin would go into the campaign for 'blood' in its colloquial sense, that is, to win. I made no mention of war or anything like it. It has become a common thing for people to say when they are determined to accomplish any object that they are 'out for blood', not meaning that any personal injury to any person is intended, but simply to express the determination to win."The fact that my words have been misquoted by the political enemy shows a desire to make a false interpretation of my meaning. It makes a direct change in the meaning, putting an alternative to success in the place of the real meaning. Thus they insinuate that I threaten 'blood' in case our ticket shall be defeated. Why, it is supremely ridiculous. You will notice that I made no mention of Mr. Bryan until I came to the close of my address.

That was premeditated. The name of

JANESVILLE WILL BE WELL REPRESENTED AT MONROE NEXT WEEK.Present indications are that Janesville will be well represented this year at the Green county fair to be held in Monroe, Sept. 5, 6, 7 and 8. No expense has been spared to make the fair at Monroe the greatest in its history. Many special vaudeville artists have been engaged in Chicago. The races will be the best held in southern Wisconsin in years, there being $2,500 in purses. Liberal premiums have been offered on all sides.
A new track that has cost several thousand dollars to construct will be a pleasing feature to horsemen. Special low rates have been granted from Janesville.Bryan had set the convention wild every time it was mentioned, and I did not want to be interrupted by applause of that kind while I was speaking. But I did not want to close without having made any mention of the presidential candidate and so planned to work in his name in closing. It occurred to me that it would be well to declare that the democrats were going into the campaign to win, and so I made use of the alliterative expression for that purpose. That is all there is of it."I might say further that no person in the convention took any exception to the expression, or placed any such construction on it as the one studied up by the republican press, or I should have heard of it before the convention was over. During the recess that followed the afternoon session of the convention at which the address was made. The friends of Messrs. Ryan and Warden of Waukesha and came to me and urged that I place
Mr. Warden in nomination for state chairman. They said that I had made one happy speech in the convention and that it might help Mr. Warden if I would nominate him. If there had been anything objectionable in my speech
they would not have wanted to give me
the opportunity to make a second break
at their expense."It is altogether a most ridiculous thing that has been attempted by the republican press, and sensible people will not be misled by it."

dozen eels, cut off the heads and slice into pieces about one inch thick. Place in a stewpan and cover with boiling water. Add all tablespoonful of vinegar and simmer 15 minutes. Drain eels from water, into a saucepan place two cupfuls of fish or veal stock; add a tablespoonful of butter, a sprig of parsley, a small onion, a bay leaf, and salt and pepper to taste. When it boils, place the eels into it and cook rather rapidly 30 minutes. When done, remove the eels, soak quarter of a box
of gelatin in sufficient cold water to cover it, strain the sauce over it and allow constantly until it begins to harden. Pour a layer of the jelly into a rounded china mold, arrange slices of hard boiled egg about the sides and stand on ice to harden.
After about an hour the jelly will be hard enough. Remove the jelly over hot water. Place a layer of eel on the jelly which has hardened in the mold and then another layer of the hot jelly and so on until all the material has been used, making the last layer jelly. Stand on ice 24 hours to harden. Serve with mustard sauce.During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases that the army had to deal with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Green Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by Smith's Pharmacy, next to
P. O., Kodak agents.If the Baby is Cutting Teeth
Be sure and use the old and well tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children's teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.JOHN KELLY WINS
RACE IN BOSTONProbably the happiest man in Boston
Saturday night was "Johnny Kelly," and well he might be, for Saturday he had the extreme satisfaction and glory of winning one of the most important racing events of the grand circuit series over the Roadville track, Boston, with his favorite horse, "Charley Herr," one of the gamest and most consistent race horses now upon the turf.The competing horses were a notable lot, the most prominent being Arion, the young horse that the late Governor Stanford sold to Malcolm Forbes of Boston, a millionaire, for $125; Grattan Boy, owned by the railroad magnate of the south, Mr. Plant, was also a competitor, and is considered by many second only to the unbeaten Crescent.Lord Vincent, a great money winner in '99 and driven by the only John Splan, was another competitor that had a strong following.Kingmond, a noted eastern horse, was also among the starters.Arion a top heavy favorite set the pace in the first heat, but Grattan Boy beat him out with Charley Herr second.The second heat furnished the surprise and excitement of the race, as Grattan Boy had won the first heat in 2:03; the race was generally conceded to him by the wise ones but the result of the heat was another demonstration of the uncertainty of horse racing, as well as human affairs. Grattan Boy rushed away from the wire with a great burst of speed but Kelly and "Herr" were close on his trail. As Grattan Boy leaped into the home stretch Kelly was seen to be improving his position to those knowing the bull dog fighting qualities of Herr this signified a great deal. The drive home was an exhibition of the driver's skill and judgment, resulting in John's winning by a neck only in 2:03.The third heat was a repetition of the second, a hard drive by all with Charley Herr the best horse and John Kelly returned the winner and recipient of congratulations and bouquets.

THE MAN OF THE HOUR

A Magnificent Portrait of

PRESIDENT

McKINLEY

Reproduced in Ten Colors from a Late Photograph, for which the President specially sat, at the request of the Publishers. . . .

(Size 14 x 21 INCHES.)

It has been printed for us on heavy plate-paper, in a form suitable for framing, by one of the largest art lithograph houses in America, in the famous French style of color-plate work. Every American family will want one of these hand some pictures of the President. It must be remembered that this picture is in no sense a cheap chromo, but is an example of the very highest style of illuminated printing. It will be an ornament to any library or drawing-room. Our readers can have the McKinley portrait at what it costs us (namely, ten cents per copy) by merely filling out the coupon below, and sending it to this office at once. There will be such a demand for this portrait that we advise sending orders at once. As many copies as may be desired can be had on one coupon, providing ten cents is sent for each copy. Write name and address plainly, and remit in coin or postage stamps.

Wisconsin Weather Forecast

Generally fair, possibly showers tonight.

The Wisconsin democracy has entrusted its destinies to chairman A. F. Warden. Mr. Warden is all right, but more than one warden must be secured—a whole board of wardens will be necessary in order to give the campaign even a start.

"Bryan, Bohmrich and Blood" will not be the democratic campaign cry, because it never had any significance, but, like enough, the Bourbon heart will turn to that historic utterance of some unknown knight, "Soak 'em Louis!"

Congressman John J. Esch, who has been mentioned as an available candidate for the United States senate, declines to allow the discussion to go further, saying that he is in favor of the return of Senator John C. Spooner.

Mr. Mahoney knows how it is himself. He used to be a reporter on the old Chicago Times, and has always been identified with some kind of a newspaper. At present he is running The Irish American Star.

The South Second street macadam stood the test of unusually severe rain storms. Evidently the city authorities have hit off the right combination in street work.

That new police system has not yet been inaugurated, but the people should not be impatient. The work will be done in due time and done thoroughly.

The city charter should be abolished. Of what use is it? If it isn't worth living up to, is it worth space on the books?

This is a great year for the "Bobs." Fitz also won again.

TWO DEMOCRATIC VIEWS

A Figure of Speech.

Eau Claire Leader, dem.—Some republicans papers are having a spasm over J. L. Mahoney's nominating speech at Milwaukee. As indicated by his name, Mr. Mahoney is a true son of Old Erin; and like all Irishman is endowed with wit and good humor. His is the "Come on boys!" style. In his nominating speech the man from Jamesville, who was making practically an impromptu speech, indulged in more or less witticisms and was alliterative to an extent. At the close of his remarks he did say, in his come-on-boys style, words to this effect: "Let's have Bryan, Bohmrich, or blood." Merely a figure of speech, uttered with no sanguinary intention or feeling on the part of the speaker, merely an alliterative, if not graceful, way of showing his enthusiasm for the ticket, and determination to win. There is nothing "bloody" about Mr. Mahoney, even if he does come from the land of the shillelah.

No Anarchistic Thought.

Kenosha Gazette, dem.—Our friend, J. L. Mahoney of Jamesville, and now of "Bryan, Bohmrich, or Blood" notoriety, had no more thought of anything anarchistic in the expression than if he had said: "Bryan, Bohmrich or Bust."

WILL KEEP TROOPS AT AKRON.

Governor Nash Fears That Rioting May Break Out Aresh.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 27.—Governor Nash fears there may be more rioting at Akron. For that reason troops will be held there twenty-four hours longer. This decision was reached at a conference here between the governor and Assistant Adjutant General Adams. Governor Nash said he should keep the troops on duty until he was absolutely satisfied that the lawless element would make no further trouble.

"The ill feeling among the Akron citizens who participated in the riots seems to be directed especially against the city officials," said the governor. "I am afraid that when the lawless element fully realizes that the negro was taken into the city and sentenced and then taken away again without their knowing the slightest thing about the matter trouble may arise again. The state will protect life and property as long as necessary." Speaking concerning the punishment of the rioters, the governor said the state officials will take no hand in the prosecution. "From what I learn," said the governor, "the civil authorities there are capable of taking care of the lawbreakers, and unless they should express to me their inability the state will take no part in the matter. The local authorities are gathering evidence against those persons who were guilty of the rioting which culminated in the deaths of innocent persons and the destruction of thousands of dollars' worth of property."

Peck in the Penitentiary.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 27.—Lewis Peck, who was sentenced to the penitentiary for life for assaulting little Christina Maas and whose crime precipitated the riot and bloodshed at Akron, is an obedient prisoner. He is suffering from nervous excitement due to his recent experience.

SLAY WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

An Outbreak of Aboriginal Blacks Against Australian Whites.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 27.—News comes from Sydney by the steamer Mariposa of an outbreak of latent savagery in two aboriginal blacks who had lived for years in close association with whites, and it resulted in the slaughter of five women and children in one place and of five people in another.

At Breelong, in New South Wales, the Mawby family offended two natives known as Governor and Underwood, who, in revenge, broke into the Mawby house, armed with tomahawks and war clubs. In the house were Mrs. Mawby, her two daughters, Grace and Hilda; her niece, Elsie Clark; Miss Herse, a school teacher, and three boys, Percy, aged 13, George 12, and Albert 9. Of these, only the two youngest boys escaped by hiding. All the others were killed or mortally wounded.

The blacks seem to have blood madness upon them, for in their flight across the country to Queensland mountains they killed Alexander McKay and his wife at Guoling, old Mrs. O'Brien and her young child at Maruwa and Kerin Fitzpatrick, an old man of 60, at Mudgee. Their horses were captured by the police, but they escaped.

BOLT STRIKES LAUNCH.

Helmsman Driven Mad and Ten Other Injured.

Quincy, Ill., Aug. 27.—One man was driven insane, three were seriously burned, and seven more were stunned by a bolt of lightning which played queer pranks with the gasoline launch Lillian. The little craft, which was up the river with a fishing party, stopped for a few minutes after the bolt tore a hole in the roof of its cabin, and then the machinery resumed its work, apparently uninjured, the launch continuing on its way. Hugh Patton, who was at the wheel, was rendered unconscious. He apparently was lifeless when taken to the hospital, but later showed signs of recovery, although his mind seems a blank. Thomas White, a wealthy manufacturer, for some hours was paralyzed from his hips down, but it is believed he will live. Nicholas Schuster and Alva A. Meyers also were badly burned. The seven others aboard were stunned by the shock, but none suffered serious hurt.

CHAFFEE WOULD QUIT CHINA.

Favors the Withdrawal of American Troops Now There.

New York, Aug. 27.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: Maj.-Gen. Chaffee has recommended that the United States troops now in China be withdrawn as soon as all the Americans in Peking have reached places of safety.

His cable dispatch advising this and accumulating evidences of lack of harmony among the powers were the main subjects of discussion at the cabinet meeting. The president and all the members of the administration are anxious to get the troops out of China at the earliest possible date, but it can be said on authority that there will be no immediate withdrawal of American forces unless there is an immediate change in conditions.

HO YOW WARNS AMERICA.

Says Occupation of Peking Means a General Rising in China.

Oakland, Cal., Aug. 27.—In a lecture on the situation in China, delivered here, Consul-General Ho Yow said: "Recent advices inform me that the United States will keep troops in China. I hope it will not be so. There will be great danger in such a course. I fear when it is known that the Chinese capital is in the hands of forsigners' taste will be a terrible uprising all over China. The Chinese will rise in a body and it will take much money and many lives to ultimately suppress them."

"Would your Christ wish you to advance religion at the sacrifice of millions of lives?"

Ballyhoo Bey the Winner.

New York, Aug. 27.—Ridden by a jockey brought from England for the one race, his owner 1,000 miles away at sea and none present of those immediately connected with the management of the colt, save his trainer and former owner, to exult over the victory, William C. Whitney's Ballyhoo Bey at the Sheepshead Bay course won the richest stake of the American turf, the Futurity, worth $12,080 gross.

REPUBLICAN MISSION.

Will Not Be Over Till There Are No More Markets to Conquer.

The mission of the party of prosperity will not be over until there are no more markets to conquer. It is charged that this is not a noble mission, that it is rank commercialism. But it is more than that. It is rank industrialism. It is providing work for factories, labor for laborers, transportation for goods. It makes the pay roll fatter. It is the policy that cancels mortgages, builds homes for workmen, creates a demand for the grain of the field, the meat of the pasture and the iron and coal of the mine. It is rational and national prosperity founded on wisdom, not a promised prosperity created by cutting a dollar in two and calling each half a whole.

A radical departure from this policy is advocated by the Democrats in their avowed purpose to destroy protection and oppose expansion. The triumph of their policy, if put upon the statute books, would result in American furnaces becoming cold and American shuttles being silent. English looms would weave for us, and German mills would do our forging. American labor would find its occupation gone.

There is a difference between the two political parties. The Republicans do want to govern the markets of the world and to reign over the distribution of the world's bread and meat, securing in this way work at home for every honest laborer, markets for the products of our farms and becoming such a factor in the world that will compel peace and justice among the nations of the earth. It is the policy which will hasten that blessed time promised by the prophet of old when the sword shall be beaten into plowshares and the spear into pruning hooks. It is the Republican policy.

German Troops at Taku.

Taku, Aug. 27.—German regiments have arrived here aboard three large vessels. One regiment is destined for Tientsin, another for Peking. Three Russian vessels are in the harbor and active military operations are expected.

Queen Resents Flattery.

The proposal of the British to change the name of Pretoria to Victoria in honor of the queen is said not to have the sanction of the latter. This is greatly to her credit. There are many Victorias in her realm and the queen evidently feels that the English could get along without imposing this extra humiliation on the Boers.

JANESVILLE G. A. R. OFF FOR CHICAGO

OVER FORTY LEAVE TO ATTEND THE ENCAMPMENT.

Headquarters of the Wisconsin Posts will be at the Palmer House—List of the Various Badger State Events Scheduled During the Session—Railways Kept Busy.

The last two days have been busy ones for all railroads leading into Chicago. The trains on both roads running through this city have been crowded with passengers, every train having from one to three extra coaches attached. The morning train on the C. & N. W. from Mineral Point had a number of extra coaches bearing about two hundred veterans from the Posts along the line. Two large special trains on the C. & N. W. went through yesterday, carrying excursionists. The extra traffic keeps all the extra crews and coaches in service. Everything possible is being done by the railroads to handle the large crowds with safety and comfort.

The headquarters of the Wisconsin Posts will be at the Palmer house. A large number of the members of the soldiers homes posts will be in Chicago and swell the Wisconsin contingent in the parade Tuesday.

The official train carrying Department Commander James, his staff and escort left Madison yesterday morning going by the way of Milwaukee over the C. M. & St. P. R. R.

Another official train on the Northwestern from Superior passed through here yesterday morning carrying members of posts in Spooner, Eau Claire, Elroy and Madison, and also the Janesville post.

The Wisconsin department of the Woman's Relief Corps will have their headquarters at the Sherman House, and so will the Wisconsin ladies of the G. A. R.

The old First Wisconsin battery, Light artillery will hold a reunion in Chicago during the encampment, room 207 County building, commencing on Aug. 29, at 9 o'clock.

The First Wisconsin Infantry regiment will have a banquet and camp fire on Wednesday, August 29, at 7 o'clock in the evening at the Chicago Athletic club.

The Second cavalry will have its headquarters in the Ogden school building state and Chestnut streets. The First Wisconsin infantry will have headquarters in room 427 county building, and will meet Wednesday at 11 a. m. The Twentieth Wisconsin infantry will meet at the same time and place. The Forty-third Wisconsin infantry will meet at room 314 county building, Wednesday at 8 a. m. and at 11 p. m. The survivors of the battle of Bull Run will have their headquarters with the Iron Brigade, 84 State street.

W. H. Sargent Post Leaves
The W. H. Sargent Post left this morning on the special train which left this city at 10:10 over the C. & N. W. R. R. The procession formed in front of the post hall on Milwaukee street and marched to the station headed by the fife and drum corps. All appeared to be in a happy mood, and were looking forward to the many pleasures of the encampment, and the renewal of old acquaintances made during the stormy times of the rebellion. Many a good story will be told and many a hearty laugh will be had over some of the circumstances of that time. Among those who attended from the W. H. Sargent Post are:

Post Commander E. O. Kimbrey, Colonel and Mrs. W. B. Britton, C. J. Schottle and family, Charles Vinoy and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McIntyre, John Burnham, John Krause, J. L. Bear, Adam Sanber, Ed. Phillips, James Caldwell, P. S. Featon, L. H. Lee, W. M. King, Martin Peterson.

The drum and fife corps which accompanied the Janesville delegation was composed of:

Drummers—H. M. Weaver, Hyatt Weaver, Orrin Weaver, A. P. Brunson, Fifers—W. C. Gieson, A. S. Clifford.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Child, B. F. Hitt, W. G. Palmer, E. B. Holmstrom, P. G. Strickler, M. Raby, Myron Clark, S. C. Cobb, Herman Phelps, James Ellis, A. F. Lee.

REPUBLICAN POLICY.

THE PARTY AIMS TO STIMULATE TRADE THE WORLD OVER.

Stupendous Results of Mr. McKinley's Administration Are Almost Beyond Belief—Most Prosperous Era of Nation's History.

(Special Washington Letter.)
In time of peace prepare for war is an axiom no less essential for the well being of a nation than another. In time of prosperity prepare for adversity. Times are prosperous now. Never before in our history has such an immense and profitable volume of business been handled. It cannot be expected that all years will be like this year. Crops will fail. Speculation induced by prosperity may lead to unsafe investments and consequent hard times.

But the wise administrators of the nation must and will provide as far as possible to so direct and diversify the industries of the nation that a good degree of prosperity may be expected under all normal conditions. As a people we grow more than we can eat. We dig from our mines more than we can consume. We spin, weave, forge, shape and make more than we can use. Field, forest, furnace and factory all produce more than enough to supply any possible domestic demand.

This is a condition, not a theory, which can be met in but one of two ways. Reduce the output or increase the purchasers. The former is contraction. The latter is expansion. It is impossible to stand still. We must go forward or backward. The channels of the world's commerce are never stagnant. The struggle of the twentieth century will be for markets. Business knows no sentiment. The purchaser, whether Turk, Japanese, English or Yankee, will buy where he can buy the cheapest. The nation that can undersell the rest of the world will control the commerce of the world. It is the settled policy of the Republican party to protect our industries, encourage manufacturing, and thus create a constant demand for labor. This, however, is only half of the problem.

The nation or the individual that increases production, without enlarging the demand and increasing consumption, will come to grief. Goods stacked up in warehouses represent dead capital paid out both for material and labor. McKinley, not content with opening the factory, opened the markets to absorb the output of loom, spindle, pick and plow.

The result is almost beyond belief. The exports of the United States for the fiscal year 1900 amounted to the enormous sum of $1,394,479,214. This is divided among all classes of industries, and the increase over the fiscal year of 1890, the best the country had ever before known under any administration, was as follows:

Fisheries	$1,000,000
Mining	10,000,000
Forestry	10,000,000
Agriculture	50,000,000
Manufacturing	135,000,000

Now to keep up this record and provide for a normal growth is the purpose of the Republican party. It has recently perfected a reciprocity treaty with Germany, and another with Italy in order to increase the sales of American products in those lands, a policy inaugurated by that matchless American statesman, James G. Blaine.

The administration secured "an open door policy" in the Orient so that when the Chinese troubles are over, without the necessity of taking a foot of land or keeping a single soldier in China, our products shall have every advantage enjoyed by those of the most favored nations interested in the east. The importance of this diplomatic triumph may be to some extent realized when it is remembered that one-third of the products of all the looms of the southern states finds a market in the Orient.

It is the pronounced policy of the Republican party to stimulate trade the world over. It advocates a ship subsidy bill, so that vessels may float the American flag, transport American goods, carry American mails, and open new markets for American products. American banking institutions are established in both the East and West Indies in order that exchange of money may be effected without our business having to pass through London, paying a toll to British financiers.

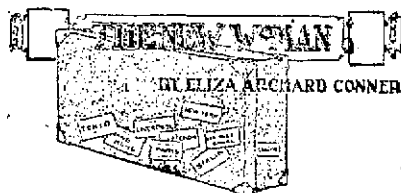

The Democratic attempt to haul down the Fourth of July will be every bit as popular and successful as the Democratic effort to haul down the flag in the Philippines.

Will Reduce Ocean Freights.
Senator Frye estimates that as soon as the shipping bill which he expects to put through congress at the next session has built up a substantial fleet of American ships there will be a large and permanent reduction in ocean freights, the benefit of which would go more largely to our farmers, whose products compose nearly three-quarters of our entire exports, than to any other class of our citizens.

It is to be hoped that the Boxers are not as deeply interested in Bryan's election, as the insurgents in the Philippines.

A Good Investment.
The payment of $9,000,000 a year to build up American ships in the foreign trade, says Senator Frye, will, through the keen competition that will be engendered, effect a reduction in ocean freights on American imports and exports equal to about $25,000,000 a year.

A Suggestion For Croker.
In case Mr. Croker fails to rally the young men of the country the work might be turned over to the Tammany ice trust. It has a businesslike way of going after things.

After a journey which dragged itself out as to time more than two years, as to space a distance of nearly twice around the globe, it is more pleasant than I can express to take up again these familiar talks with old friends and new acquaintances.

Of old friends, some of the nearest and best have happily escaped from the toil and stress of this life, since I began my wanderings. Of new readers, some are bright, eager girls, just entering life's road, dreaming the dreams of brainy and worthily aspiring young womanhood. It is a weary way at best, life's road, especially to those who endeavor to show any reason why they should have been born at all, yet we are glad we are alive. Even the worn and weary gray haired woman who has any sense must rejoice that through the hardship, the work and suffering of this planet she attains a growth and development denied to the very angels.

What right minded being would want to be an angel when it is possible to be a man or a woman striving on always in love and righteousness, seeing new light breaking, feeling new and greater power and wisdom filling and thrilling at every step of the way?

Especially American girls and women ought to be thankful that they are citizens of this blessed country, the United States. Women all over the earth, English, French, Russian, German, Japanese, turn their eyes toward America as to the earthly paradise of women. That it is. In all France there is not a college for women. The Frenchwoman, though she have the brain of a statesman or a gift for swinging a blacksmith's hammer or mauling rails, must perforce learn at school to sew, embroider and hemstitch by hand, and she learns scarcely anything else. In Germany it is scarcely any better; in Russia no better.

Only in the United States can the girl who is gifted and persevering aspire to what she will attain. American women do not half understand and appreciate their opportunity. If they did, our women, business, professional and domestic, would be more thoroughly trained and wide awake, happy all day long in their work, whatever it may be, thankful with all their souls that their lot has been cast in this republic. What is happiness? Happiness is that which happens. Therefore are we happy all the time and don't know it.

Mrs. Grundy endeavors to turn all girls and women out of the same mold, but nature has sent every one of them into the world an individual to develop her own mind and save her own soul. No two minds are alike any more than any two faces. Every mind is entitled to grow its own way as much as every nose is. Those who undertake to thwart the natural talents of a young man or woman and force them in a different direction assume for themselves a responsibility that even the Almighty does not take on himself. Whether the tyrannical meddler with another's individuality be parent, guardian, husband or wife, in the time to come he or she will have to suffer mightily for this interference. Women especially have been so stunted and dwarfed by parent, husband and society that many of them are as crippled mentally as a Chinese woman is physically. What is worse, they don't know it themselves.

Professor Lombroso and those worthies who preach the doctrine of the physical inferiority of women will have a nut to crack in the achievement of Mrs. Emma R. Bayne, who at Valley Stream, N. Y., recently accomplished a feat in cycling that no man or any other woman has as yet achieved or undertaken. Mrs. Bayne rode 3,000 miles upon her bicycle in 20 days and 12 hours, completing this unprecedented 30 century run in excellent physical condition, weighing six pounds more than she did at the start. It may be noted that she ate no meat during this extraordinary ride, though using freely eggs, milk and beef tea. Her trainers never allowed her to sleep more than two hours at a time, but let her slumber at frequent intervals. She found her worst difficulty was to fight off the desire to sleep. No sooner had she made the new record than she set out to do 15 centuries more in ten days, thus wheeling 4,500 miles in 30 days. At the moment of beginning the additional 1,500 miles she said to a New York World reporter, "There is not the slightest danger of my overtaxing my strength."

Russia has a woman blacksmith who is famous throughout the whole province in which she lives. She owns and manages her shop, and her name is Agrassana Namirov. She appears to be a shadow among women, for, although she is now 50 years old, she herself does the heaviest labor in her shop, tasks which her men assistants are not strong enough to perform.

Miss Emily Walton was elected school commissioner in a certain country district in Illinois. A man commissioner refused to serve with her and even went so far as to command her to stop looking into the school record books, which she was perusing with a view of getting the bang of things. She was not, however, to be scared off, but insisted on her right and duty as one whom the people had chosen, and maintained her ground modestly but unflinchingly. Then the men commissioners, finding her more capable than themselves, left her to do all the work, keeping the minutes, repairing the schoolhouse and hiring the teachers.

ETRUSCAN PERIOD STUDIES.

Ancient Stone Sarcophagi for Berkeley University.

Eight ancient stone sarcophagi of the Etruscan period are about to be embarked on a sailing vessel for transportation from Italy around the Horn to San Francisco, that they may be set up in the new museum of classical art and archaeology which Mrs. Phebe A. Hearst is organizing for the University of California. Each sarcophagus bears upon its lid a reclining human figure of life size. On the lower portion of one sarcophagus is an Etruscan inscription of great archaeological interest, still wonderfully clear, considering the long period of time in which the stone has been exposed to the action of the elements. On the sides of others are carved strange monsters and quaint human forms. With the sarcophagi will come some mosaic fragments, and the contents of an Etruscan tomb. These new acquisitions will be of great value as illustrations of the Etruscan civilization, which preceded that of Rome in Italy. Gratifying success continues to attend the excavations, which are being conducted in Egypt by Mrs. Hearst for the enrichment of the archaeological museum of the University of California.

Dr. George A. Reisner, who is in charge of the work, in a letter from El Ahiwah, Egypt, dated June 23, reports the discovery of a beautiful ivory dish with a handle, whose design is a composition of lotus flowers, two beautiful fayence jars, which bear a design in black a mixture of lotus flowers and nymphaea caerulea; a small gold ornament—an Isis head with a fan-shaped collar—and a number of alabaster dishes. In an Egyptian burying place of still greater antiquity Dr. Reisner's native diggers have unearthed a piece which he believes unique—a statue of a standing fox, 15 inches long and 7 1/2 inches high, with eyes inlaid with lead. In the same cemetery have recently been found a small but beautiful granite bowl of black and white, a fine slate bowl, a small but exquisite alabaster jar, an alabaster cup, a slate jar, two palettes of slate, on in the form of a fish, the other in the form of a cow's head; and a large number of beads, painted jars and polished bowls and jars. These Egyptian excavations for the University of California are being pursued with scientific care in order that the work may result not only in the gathering of valuable material, but in the increase of knowledge concerning the life of the ancient Egyptians.

Diameter of a Molecule.
Lord Kelvin estimates the diameter of the molecule of a gas to be not less than one five-hundred-millionths of a centimeter. If a drop of water were to be magnified to the size of the earth, and its molecules were magnified proportionately, the size of each molecule would be between that of a duck shot and that of a cricket ball.

Champion Wolf Catcher.
W. B. Werd claims to be champion wolf catcher of the country, basing his claim on the fact that he appeared in Rapid City, S. D., recently with 332 pelts, 244 of the gray wolf and seventy-eight of the coyote. The bounty on the lot amounted to $810, which is the largest wolf bounty ever paid to one man so far as is known.

Seven Blood-Stained Copies.
You cannot always believe in the genuineness of relics shown to you in Europe. Literary Paris, for instance, is greatly agitated over the difficulty of deciding which is the genuine copy of "L'Ami du Peuple," which was stained with the blood of Marat when the revolutionist met his death at the hands of Charlotte Corday. So far seven copies have turned up, all solemnly accredited and all bearing the blood stain.

DON'T FORGET

Don't forget to use Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription for that back-ache. Don't forget that over half a million women have been cured of women's ailments by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Don't forget that "Favorite Prescription" cures diseases of women in their advanced and chronic forms; cures often when all else has failed. Don't forget that you can consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. Tell your story frankly. All correspondence is private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Don't forget to write to Dr. Pierce to-day, if you are sick from diseases which afflict women. "I wrote for advice February 4, 1896," writes Mrs. Lena Halstead, of Claremore, Cherokee Co., Ind., "in tracking worms from the back of my head down to my heels. Had hemorrhage for weeks at a time, and was unable to sit for ten minutes at a time. You answered my letter, advised me to use your valuable medicines, viz.: Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and 'Pleasant Pellets,' also gave advice about injections, baths and diet. To my surprise, in four months from the time I began your treatment I was a well woman and have not had the back-ache since, and now I put in sixteen hours a day hard work."

Paper-bound edition of Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing. Address as above.

OVER 300,000 SOLDIERS AND VISITORS

Chicago, Aug. 27.—An army, grand, but without guns, glorified, but grizzled and decrepit, stormed Chicago this morning. They will loot the treasure houses of its hospitality, plunder its pleasures and sack the city day and night, while every citizen looks on approvingly and cries "Welcome!" and "Well done!" The scouts have been coming for a week and the skirmish line came Saturday, the advance guard fell upon the city yesterday and last night the main army, 30,000 strong, was rushing forward.

Twenty thousand old men who know about weather and war overran the streets yesterday. Dressed in army blue, with badges splendid only in their blue, with badges splendid only in their significance, the old soldiers waded ankle deep in pools of rain, bared their heads before the heroic figures of Lincoln. Grant and Logan and "went a visitin'" and "a-foragin'" until the torrents which deluged the streets had soaked and bedraggled them into condition for a camp fire and a bout with the canned.

Cane Supplies the Umbrella.
The old soldiers seemed to have spurned that unimilitary equipment, the umbrella, and pranced around like "rookies" with canes, scoffing at the weather and telling off told tales of bivouac and battle in swamp and storm. From Hammond to Evanston and from the western city limits to the four mile crib the veteran made himself conspicuous. In the churches patriotism and piety prayed for him and praised him and he was there praying for and praising his comrades that are gone. He went to the gardens and parks "seen the show", was whirled aloft in the Ferris wheel, promenaded the avenue of fame, sneered at the civilians in mackintoshes, and when it was all over "allowed that it's a party good all round lay-out."

"Partly bad day overhead!" shouted a one-armed veteran from Colorado to another from Tennessee.

"Yass," but the walkin's good. It's kin dry to some o' them days in the Wilderness!"

Visitors to Number 300,000

By 9 o'clock this morning, if the estimates of the Grand Army encampment managers and the railroad men are correct, there were 300,000 visitors in Chicago. There is no longer any hope that the president will attend, and this announcement may keep away hundreds to whom the sight of a president of the United States would be a new experience.

The hotels are taxed to their capacity, the schools of the down-town district are like barracks, astir with soldiers, boarding houses and homes are taking care of many thousands.

REUNION OF THE IRON BRIGADE.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—Many notable reunions were held during the day, the most prominent one was that of the Iron brigade, which gathered at two o'clock this afternoon in Memorial hall, Michigan avenue and Randolph street. An address of welcome was made by General John C. Black, to which General Edward S. Bragg, commander of the Iron brigade, replied. At 6:30 in the evening the banquet will be held.

Charles H. McConnell, president of the Iron Brigade Veteran association of Chicago and sergeant of the Twenty-fourth Michigan Volunteer infantry, will be toastmaster, and the invocation will be given by Rt. Rev. Samuel Fallows, colonel of the Forty-ninth Wisconsin Volunteer infantry and brevet brigadier general of United States volunteers. The toast list is as follows:

Washington Gardner, United States senator from Michigan—"New Responsibilities of American Patriots."

Governor Edward Scofield of Wisconsin—"Wisconsin's Record in the Civil War."
General Albert D. Shaw, commander in chief of the Grand Army of the Republic—"The Private Soldier of the Great War."
Governor James A. Mount of Indiana—"The New Birth of Our Country."
James G. Flanders of Milwaukee—"The Duties of Good Citizenship."
Charles G. Dawes, comptroller of the currency—"What the Younger Generation Owes to the Iron Brigade."
General Edward S. Bragg of Wisconsin—"General John Gibbon and His Children, the Iron Brigade."
Poem—James Whitecomb Riley, "The Hoosier Poet."

Among the noted guests at the banquet will be Generals Miles, Corbin and Sickles, the duke d'Arcos, Senators Culum and Mason of Illinois and Governors Mount of Indiana, Scofield of Wisconsin, Stone of Pennsylvania and Nash of Ohio.

Prisoners of War, room 307 County Building.

The United States revenue cutter Morrill arrived and the Fessenden came later.

Cutter Morrill at Chicago.

At 3:30 o'clock on Monday afternoon the Fessenden and Morrill, in full holiday attire of flags and bunting left Van Buren street to head the water parade.

Information Bureau Open.

The information bureau, which will be the general rendezvous for the veterans who attend the encampment, was opened in the Keith Building, Monroe street and Wabash avenue. It will be kept open night and day in order to provide accommodations for the visitors who are coming in at all times as the trains arrive. There are departments of hotels, boarding and lodging houses, private accommodations, free quarters, Sons of Veterans, board of surgeons, supply of horses, and a place for obtaining general information. J. A. McCartney has general charge of the bureau.

Assistants to Grand Marshal.

Colonel J. H. Wood, Grand Marshal of the parade on Tuesday, has selected the following assistant marshals for the state departments:

Wisconsin, Captain J. J. Healy. New Jersey, Montana, California and Nevada, Major W. W. Bell. Pennsylvania, Dr. J. P. Irey. Ohio, George Lilly. New York, Captain J. H. Bell. Connecticut and Massachusetts, Colonel Charles Crawford. Rhode Island, New Hampshire and Vermont, Colonel A. K. Tappan. Potomac, Virginia, North Carolina and Maryland, Captain A. N. Reece. Nebraska, Colonel William F. Cody. Michigan, Captain S. B. Thompson. Iowa, Colonel W. B. Keeler. Indiana, Colorado and Wyoming, Captain H. H. Belfield. Kansas and Delaware, Captain W. A. Jenkins. Minnesota, Captain F. C. Crandon. Missouri, Major D. W. Reed. Oregon, Kentucky, West Virginia and South Dakota, Captain A. B. Capron. Washington, Arkansas, New Mexico and Utah, Captain W. A. Collins. Tennessee, Louisiana, Mississippi and Florida, Captain H. W. Chester. Texas, Idaho, Arizona and Georgia, Colonel A. J. Burbank. Alaska, Oklahoma and Indian Territory, Major O. W. Nixon. Illinois, Colonel R. E. C. Koch.

To Seal Train Robbers.

On the new locomotives of the Denver & Rio Grande railway nozzles have been placed on the roofs of the cabs pointing at the rear of the tender and the platform of the front end of the baggage car. These connect to the hot water of the boiler through a cock convenient to the engine driver or fireman, who can instantly send a jet of mixed steam and boiling water, at 200 pounds pressure, that would effectually kill anybody happening to be in its range. The jet is for protection against train robbers.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT OPEN.

Chicago Gayly Decorated for the Visitors.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—Veterans from various parts of the nation are arriving on every incoming train, and the G. A. R. encampment is booming. The city is elaborately decorated in honor of the visitors. In case President McKinley should come the company of police which will act as a special guard will be in command of Lieutenant Flynn of Central Detail. Captain Barber will command the mounted police. Tuesday will be observed as a general holiday by the business people of Chicago.

Every Train Is Crowded.

During the twenty-four hours ending at midnight nineteen railroads entering Chicago brought into this city more than 100,000 visitors, mostly Grand Army veterans and their families. The railroads and number of passengers respectively are: Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, 16,490; Chicago & Northwestern, 11,756; Chicago Burlington & Quincy, 9,755; Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, 6,040; Michigan Central, 7,350; Baltimore & Ohio, 4,156; Wabash, 3,456; Monon, 2,147; Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul, 4,579; Chicago & Eastern Illinois, 4,567; Pere Marquette, 2,546; Grand Trunk, 2,145; Pennsylvania, 6,545; Fort Wayne, 3,640; Santa Fe, 5,437; Nickel Plate, 4,511; Chicago & Western Indiana, 4,523; Chicago & Great Western, 4,325; Chicago & Alton, 5,345.

Today at 10:30 occurred the parade of naval veterans, participated in by National Association of Union Ex-Prisoners of War, and at 3 p. m., the water parade, starting from foot of Randolph street and ending inside the breakwater at Lincoln park.

Auxiliaries to Meet.

While participating jointly in the general program for the encampment, the organizations auxiliary to the Grand Army will hold independent meetings to transact business pertaining to their individual orders. When the convention of the Grand Army opens in Studebaker Hall at 10 a. m. on Wednesday eight other organizations will hold conventions in various parts of the city. The places of meetings are:

Woman's Relief Corps, in Central Music Hall.
